Judge Jeanne Zuver got sick at the Saturday show, judge Jason Hoke filled in. Would like to do a donation in the name of Jason Hoke in appreciation. Candy will contact him and ask where he would like a donation to go. Pat Lanctot judged Mrs. Zuver's Group assignment. There were several complaints from our host hotel, Gold Dust West, about whining or barking dogs, dirty, smelly rooms, and rude exhibitors. Candy was able to talk to one of the exhibitors that stayed there, but was not able to catch up with the others. She will be writing letters to these exhibitors. She talked to Jane Myers about the complaints. Jane gave her Dealing With Misconduct and showed her that if an exhibitor costs a club a venue, it can result in disciplinary action. There were some complaints from judges and exhibitors regarding conformation stewards. There were several compliments from judges and exhibitors about how nice the shows were. Thank you to everyone for your help! Chris Sage did an excellent job in the kitchen. Tracy, Terri, and Yancy were extremely helpful to the grounds committee.

Sunshine Committee – Carolyn Goepner reported that she sent flowers to Chris Sage for the loss of her sister and the accident her son was seriously injured in. Flowers were sent to Suzanne Johnson who has been in the hospital. Carolyn will send flowers to Joan Newman who recently fell and broke some ribs.

Third reading of membership for Nancy Hurwitz. Motion by Carolyn Goepner, second by Sieg Goepner to accept Nancy into membership. Motion approved unanimously. Welcome to the club!

Dee Lauffer of Gardnerville has German Shepherd Dogs and is the president of the German Shepherd Dog Club of Reno.

Candy did not have membership applications available, but Sharon and Dee were told that this meeting counts as their first reading for membership.

The nominating committee was appointed. Tracy Gunter, Lynn McLellan, and Nancy Hurwitz as members. Alternates Carolyn Goepner and Terri Hanks.

Unfinished business: the new trailer is complete! It cost $550.00 to finish up. It looks wonderful! Everything has a place and fits nicely!
